

CHA wants to see all New Zealanders well housed - do you?

Community Housing Aotearoa is a vibrant and growing organisation. Our mission is to support the growth and development of community housing in New Zealand to meet our vision of all New Zealanders well housed. If you share our passion for an increasing role for community housing providers in meeting New Zealand's housing need and have great relationship and communication skills then we want to talk to you.

Community Housing Aotearoa is seeking a Senior Programme Manager

Location – Auckland, and available for travel

Salary – Based on experience

Term & Hours – Permanent, Full Time (40 hrs p/w)

As a Senior Programme Manager you will be helping CHA become the key agency to support the capacity and capability of the community housing sector. The Senior Programme Manager will manage a portfolio of projects to help meet CHA's strategic goals and annual plan targets. You will work closely with the Director and other staff to:

- Build the capacity of community housing providers by developing resources, delivering training and providing advice and guidance to member organisations;
- Support the implementation of a quality assurance/accreditation system for community housing providers;
- Carry out research into the support needs of community housing providers;
- Develop policy positions for CHA;
- Represent CHA's policy positions to government and other stakeholders for the increased role and resourcing of community housing;
- Contribute to the development and implementation of CHA's strategic plan;
- Work with the Director and other CHA staff to communicate CHA's position and promote the successes of both CHA and the sector;
- Work as part of a team to make CHA a vibrant and innovative organisation delivering quality services.

If you fit the bill you will be joining CHA at an exciting time. The sector is expanding and the Government wants to support this and enable a more diverse provision of social housing.
