

SOCIAL HOUSING FUNDING FORUM

FINAL CALL FOR REGISTRATIONS

JUST CONFIRMED:

Deputy Prime Minister, Bill English will speak on the government's social housing reform programme and his views on the future of tenancy and property management.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Brendan Lyon
Chief Executive, Infrastructure Partnerships Australia (IPA)

Brendan Lyon is the Chief Executive of Infrastructure Partnerships Australia, the peak infrastructure policy partnership between Australia's Commonwealth and state governments, and the business sector.

Brendan's keynote address will consider the accelerating decline in Australia's public housing sector on current settings – before turning to options to deliver a modern, effective and financially sustainable system of social housing.

The presentation will consider the principles and policy aims underpinning early pathfinding procurement models in Australia – before discussing a framework to reengineer public housing into a regulated and effective social service market across Australia and potentially, New Zealand.

BRENDAN'S PRESENTATION WILL BE FOLLOWED BY AN INTERVIEW PANEL WITH:

Bernadette Pinnell
Compass Housing Services

Scott Figenshow
Community Housing Aotearoa

John Holyoake
Tamaki Regeneration Company

Karen Mitchell
NZ Treasury

3.00PM REGISTRATION FOR A 3.30PM START
BECA, 21 PITT STREET, AUCKLAND

Developing social and affordable housing at scale is vital for addressing New Zealand's housing shortage.

NZCID, together with hosts Beca, are delighted to invite you to attend the Social Housing Funding Forum where speakers from both Australia and the UK will outline mechanisms that have been utilised to increase housing funding and supply in their respective jurisdictions.

Additionally, CHA will outline its proposal for how the NZ Community Housing Sector plans to increase supply, NZ Treasury will provide an update on the pipeline of housing stock transfer projects and lessons learned from the Tauranga transfer, and an update will be provided on the progress of the Tamaki Regeneration Company.

The session will conclude with questions from the floor, and refreshments and networking.

Please register your attendance with sally.bunce@nzcid.org.nz or telephone 09 377 5570 by Friday 16 September, 2016.

Please note, due to the high interest in the event, registration is limited to two representatives per organisation.
